LOW WAGES, Poverty, declining health care, unemployment rising, hunger, rising prices, stagnant wages, hunger, food banks, wars, economic fears, declining quality of life. These are some of the few atrocities that the capitalist system of government throw at the majority the working people of our country and world. Capitalist politicians can not fix it there interest is for the rich ruling class that own and control the means of production and exploit our labor for their own personal benefit. We as the majority (working class) can only make change - see how we can achieve a true socialist system of government. Call workers unite at 231-652-2865.
